Department of English at Nicolaus Copernicus University Doctoral Students Association DKN

are happy to announce the 2nd Interdisciplinary Conference

"Beyond the horizon: cross-cultural experience today"

Toruń, 24th November 2017

Call for papers

Interculturalism has significantly influenced various fields of studies and the English language, regarded as the lingua franca of our times, has played a vital role in this process. The importance of developing intercultural competence is emphasised in official documents at the European level, including the CEFR, and internationalisation of universities has been one of the subjects of heated debates in Poland recently.

We welcome contributions on a variety of topics related to intercultural experience in the area of Humanities
The list of suggested fields includes the following, but is not limited to:

- Cultural Studies,
- Cross-Cultural Studies,
- Film and Theatre Studies,
- Literary Studies,
- Linguistics,
- Methodology of Teaching English,
- Translation.

Proposal for papers (up to 20 minutes + 10 minutes for discussion) of max. 300 words should be sent by 5th September to our e-mail address: currentsjournalumk@gmail.com and include the following: the name of the author, title, affiliation, 3-5 keywords.

Notification of acceptance will be sent by 20th September

Conference fee is 50 PLN and it shall be paid by 20th October.

Registration by 20th October.

The conference is to be held on 24th November 2017 at the Department of English, NCU in Toruń, Poland (Collegium Humanisticum, W. Bojarskiego 1 St. in Toruń). After the conference selected papers will be published in a peer-reviewed journal.

Further details on the conference will be provided in the second circular.

Should you have any questions, feel free to contact us at currentsjournalumk@gmail.com

Organizing Committee
mgr Paula Budzyńska
mgr Marlena Hetman
mgr Emilia Leszczyńska
mgr Natalia Pałka
dr hab. Edyta Lorek-Jezińska